

MONSTER SCHOLARS

INTRODUCES....

DETO

People often think Deto is a scaredy-cat. It was a pretty easy mistake to make. He did tend to yell when things went wrong. He even ran from real trouble more than once. Deto, in fact, wanted people to think he was scared. He actually was very clever, and only ran in order to figure out a secret way to help.

He never let people know when he helped. He let the other supposedly braver people look like the heroes. When A got in a fight with a big bully it was Deto who snuck away and found the teacher who stopped the fight before A really got hurt. When M fell and got hurt, the others called Deto a big chicken when he ran away. They never knew Deto was the one who found the doctor who helped him.

Without Deto so many of their adventures would have gone wrong. He was perhaps the biggest hero of all without anybody knowing, and he liked it that way.
